

Context – why collaborate?

- Personalisation: A rough guide. This guide aims to tell the story so far about the personalisation of adult social care services. It is intended to set out our current understanding of personalisation at a very early stage of implementation, exploring what personalisation is, where the idea came from and placing the transformation of adult social care in the wider public service reform agenda.
- Research briefing 20: The implementation of individual budget schemes in adult social care. This briefing is intended to provide an outline of and signpost to some of the most recent research about the role of individual budget schemes for the development of personalised social care.
- Research briefing 31: Co-production: An emerging evidence base for adult social care transformation. This briefing outlines the understanding and progress of co-production, and considers the main messages and implications of research undertaken so far.
